

"Ashley draws you into this imaginative story with her attention to detail and character development. Even though the story is fantasy, it has a real life relatability for all of us who are flawed and are in need of being restored to our inner beauty. The story also appeals to those who like suspense and action. It is a story of family, friendship, and love in the midst of fighting off the influences of evil that lurk inside the winter realm. I enjoyed this trip to another world where the seasons of nature and life come together."

--Reader in Virginia

About Ashley

Ashley Beach is an author of fairy tale fiction as well as modern day adventures. She was born and raised in Denver, CO and still calls Denver her home. She has always loved fairy tales and mysteries and loves to see stories come to life in all formats. She attended Calvary University in Kansas City, MO where she graduated with degrees in Theatre Arts and Vocal Performance and Pedagogy. The importance of story was impressed on Ashley in both her high school and college theatre programs and she is grateful for the opportunity she's been given to write and share these stories about beauty lost and beauty restored. She has a deep desire to find and bring to light the beauty in every story she comes across and hopes her stories will touch those who read them as much as they have touched her as she's written them.

About Her Stories

The Solstice Chronicles

The Solstice Chronicles is a fairy tale series that is based on the four seasons. Each realm centers around a different season and each of the royals of the realms must go on epic adventures to save their realms. The battles between dark and light, good and evil, and individual struggles come to life in these page-turning adventures. This series is similar to Chronicles of Narnia by C.S. Lewis and have been loved by young children and adults of all ages.

- Beauty Restored: A Winter Solstice Chronicle
 - Based on The Snow Queen

- Looks at issues like self-worth and finding the beauty within ourselves
- Beauty Redeemed: A Spring Equinox Chronicle
 - Based on the Greek myth Hades and Persephone with elements of Swan Lake
 - Looks at the struggles between dark and light both within and in the world around us
- Beauty Reborn: A Summer Solstice Chronicle
 - Based on the mythical Phoenix bird with elements of Rapunzel and Aladdin
 - Looks at finding the beauty through trials and hardships in life
- Beauty Revealed: A Fall Equinox Chronicle (Releasing Fall 2023)
 - Based on the Greek myth about Pandora's Box with elements of Hansel and Gretel
 - Looks at the choices we all face between good and evil and how those choices affect not only us, but those around us and even the world around us

Heart of God

Heart of God is a modern day adventure series that follows Selah Cross and Dylan Kinkaide as they go on adventures around the world hunting for treasures of historical significance and solving mysteries--sometimes even murders. This series is similar to National Treasure

- Heart of God
 - First book in the Heart of God series releasing soon

Selah Cross has been accused of murder after a rare artifact that was connected to her parents' deaths goes missing. She and Dylan Kinkaide must set out to prove her innocence and find the artifact before it's too late, all while finding where the treasure of their hearts truly lie.

- The Alabaster Jar: The second book among several to come in this series

Thank you for reading about my books. I hope you enjoy them!

Ashley Beach

Ashley can be reached by email at: ashleybeach@beautyrestored.org

Check out her website at: www.beautyrestored.org

Follow her on Facebook and Instagram: @beautyrestored18